

I have been quite impressed with the nursing care at Whispering Knoll. The staff is both very caring and extremely professional. They communicate with me regularly regarding any changes in my mother's health, and just as importantly, in her overall well-being.

Grand Aileen