

We made an appointment to tour the facility and we immediately knew that after meeting with Bernice that Whispering Knoll was the perfect place for our parents. The facility met with our high standards of quality care and was also pleasing to the eye which is important to maintain the feeling of "home". We were now able to keep our parents together in a safe and controlled environment.

The entire staff at Whispering Knoll came together and helped both of our parents make a gentle transition into assisted living with the key word being "living". Every detail was orchestrated in a timely manner and the attention to detail was impeccable. Not only has Whispering Knoll granted our parents the opportunity to continue to live with the dignity they so deserve but it has also given my wife and me our lives back. We no longer worry about whether or not our parents are safe, eating properly, taking their medication and a host of other worries that children have in this situation.

Thank you so much for all you have done for our family.

Sincerely,
